

C. Todd Staub, MD, FACP

Chairman, ProHealth Physicians

Vice Chair, Connecticut Center for Primary Care

Dr. Todd Staub is the Vice Chairman of the Connecticut Center for Primary Care, and a founding member of ProHealth Physicians. Since 2000, he has served as Chairman for ProHealth Physicians. Dr. Staub continues to practice as a general internist in Litchfield, Connecticut.

Dr. Staub is involved in advocacy for primary care and health care reform in the state and at the national level. He is a member of the Litchfield County Medical Society, Connecticut State Medical Society, and American College of Physicians, and is affiliated with Charlotte Hungerford Hospital in Torrington, Connecticut and John Dempsey Hospital, University of Connecticut in Farmington, Connecticut.

Dr. Staub received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Los Angeles, and completed his medical degree from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York. He completed his residency for internal medicine at New York Hospital- Cornell Medical Center, New York, New York.